Note from the Pastor

It is July, our summer sabbatical. For one month we get out of gear, put it in neutral, drink a lemonade and listen to the Voice of God in nature, family and friends.

During this time of quiet, enjoy, from the archives some of Fr. Tony's letters from his sabbatical in Rome, 2005.

Beloved Family,

Aguri di Roma (Greetings from Rome) where the wine is cheap, the women are beautiful, the traffic a nightmare and the Pope lives next door (we are literally in the shadow of the Vatican). Oh, I almost forgot the pasta at every pranzo (lunch)... and I came here to lose a little weight... silly me.

We are living at the Pontifical North American College which was formed about 150 years ago (when you think Catholic Church, think centuries) for the education of American Seminarians. The building we are presently living in was built in 1953 and was the second largest construction in Rome after World War II. It's really something. As the seminarians say, "It's not home but it's much!" There are about 175 seminarians from the states here and after spending a week with them I am most impressed. They truly love the Lord, they love the Church and her people. Would that we could multiply them by ten. Pray for vocations. Pray for the priesthood.

There are 27 priests from all over the states on sabbatical, most in their 50's and all in need of rest and rejuvenation. And, I believe, we shall get it here. In addition to good food and a good program, there is a wonderful sense of what it means to be a priest in the service of the Gospel and the Church.

One of the most wonderful things about being here, aside from living in the Eternal City, is the perspective you get of home from being away from it. You see it much clearer. I must tell you how good St. Isidore looks from thousands of miles away. I am just now getting bits and pieces of your wonderful project to be a life line for victims of the flood. I can't tell you how proud I am. I find myself bragging to my brother priests about you all the time. Absence really does make the heart grow fonder.

Of all the things I am doing (sightseeing, visiting, reading, studying, exercising, relaxing) by far the most gratifying and edifying is prayer. I have time and make time for prayer. And you are at the top of my prayer list.

I am so happy that I asked for your prayer petitions. In a very strange but real way, I am getting to know you better and love you more through prayer than through any other means. The one place that we stand absolutely honest, naked and vulnerable before the Lord and each other is in prayer.

I am touched and humbled by the power, beauty and honesty of your prayer needs. And what amazes me most is the profound truth that the most intimate, personal needs, thoughts, fears and hopes are the most universal. Scratch below our surface differences and the deeper we go, the more common our humanity, the more universal our needs and thoughts.

And what do we need? And what do we think? We think about and need -- not stuff, I received not one prayer request for stuff -- No, we think about and need each other.

Most of your prayers requests are for your children and your spouses and your neighbors. You seek healing and understanding and forgiveness and love. You pray for conversions of heart and freedom from addictions. You long for the making whole of broken relationships. Now that's pretty good stuff. That's the stuff that counts, for now and for eternity.

And so I am praying. Every day. Several times a day. Actually all day. St. Paul tells us to pray always. And prayer is simply taking notice of and being aware of the God in whom I dwell and who dwells in me. Well, that's pretty easy around here with a magnificent church at every corner. But God I am convinced does not dwell primarily in temples made by human hands but in the temple of the human body made by the Divine hand of God.

So every one I see or think of becomes my prayer card. And you don't have to be in Rome to do that. Why, I bet you could even do that in the temple they call Stratford Square. Go ahead, try it. I know I will when I get back.

I've been here a little over a week now and as much as I am enjoying the experience, I am a little home sick and do miss you all. And am praying for you all.

In Jesus, the Prayer of the Father,

Fr. Tony

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

RE Registrations. Please note the following classes are now at capacity: Grade 3, Grade 4, and Grade 5 are now closed at 5:15 p.m. Right now we ask that you consider home schooling your children if there is no room in your desired session. This option is available in all grades except Grade 2 and Confirmation Prep, our Sacrament years. FYI: registration in the RE program is limited to participating members of Mary Queen Parish. If you are new to the parish, please register in the parish prior to registration in the RE program.

We are in need of catechists for the 2012/2013 RE year.

- 3:15 p.m.
Grade 2 – 3 catechists and 1 aide
Grade 3 – 2 aides
Grade 4 – 2 catechists
- 5:15 p.m.
Grade 6 – 2 catechists
- 6:45 p.m.
Grade 5 – 1 catechist
Grade 6 – 2 catechists

As reflected above we have a very urgent need for catechists at the second grade level at 3:15 p.m. This is the year we prepare the children for the reception of First Communion. This is a very important time in our little one's lives. If you would be willing to work with our little Communicants or know someone who is able, please let us know.

As our enrollment increases, we may have other needs as summer progresses. We will keep you posted. If you have not as yet returned your volunteer form, please do so. We are counting on you. September seems very far away, but it will be here before you know it. If you are someone who loves your Faith and would enjoy sharing it with our children, we would love to talk to you.

For more information, please contact Mary Ann Woods at the REO: (630) 832-8962 or email: mqhmawoods@sbcglobal.net.
