Note from the Pastor

Today is Bible Sunday. At least that's what my Ecumenical Daily Planner says. I'm sure it was designated so by our Protestant brothers and sisters and not by us Catholics. Why? Because reading and understanding Sacred Scriptures, the Bible, is not our strong suit.

I'm always amazed when a young couple of mixed religion come in for marriage preparation. I marvel at how conversant the protestant is about things Biblical. And when I ask the Catholic (s)he responds with, "Huh?" Now don't get me wrong, this is not to imply that the Catholic partner is not religious. Often they are deeply religious but utterly inarticulate when it comes to talking about their faith and especially the Bible.

There is an explanation for all of this. A few weeks ago I presented all of our RE 6th grade students with a really nice Catholic Youth Bible. Before we blessed them and passed them out one by one, I asked them how much they knew about the Bible? Sadly, they knew next to nothing. Trust me, by the end of the class each could name the four evangelists (that's a start). I explained to them that the reason Catholics are so ignorant about the Bible is because, well, for the first fifteen hundred years we didn't have access to a Bible. Then how did we learn? Ah, the smells and the bells and the pictures. We appropriate our faith not so much through our head but through our heart and our gut. That's the reason it's so deep and at the same time so inarticulate.

I explained to them that something happened five-hundred years ago that truly facilitated the Protestant Reformation. What was it? A number of hands went up. The printing press. Exactly. And what was the first thing Gutenberg printed on his brand new movable type printing press? The Bible! Exactly. And who was among the first to translate the Bible from Latin into German? You got it, Martin Luther.

Gutenberg's invention caused a monumental shift in the world we live in. All of a sudden new ideas could be disseminated and passed along at a rapid pace. Prior to this great invention, the way you received the faith was to look at the stained glass windows and hear the stories of the people in the windows. This is how I teach the first graders when they tour our church.

Here's a window of the creation, and we tell the story. Here's a window of Jesus rising from the dead, and we tell the story. Here's one of him walking on the water. The faith was also passed along by ritual actions, images of the Virgin and Child and the smells of the heavenly incense. It is still not a bad way to learn.

But learning how to read changed everything. Now you could read for yourself what St. Paul is writing about. He is the first and among the greatest theologians of our faith. But he's heady. And even though he is describing a profound spiritual experience, he uses the language of the intellect and the head. Now, the new followers of the Reformation are receiving their faith not so much through the gut and the heart but through the head. It is a whole different way to appropriate the faith. Now words and what these words mean become very, very important. And, of course, now we can argue over these words and find ourselves splitting off in many, many denominations over what they mean. And so they did.

The Catholic reaction to all of this was what was called the Counter-Reformation. Because the reformers were insistent that our faith only came from the Scripture and that we are saved only by faith and not by action, the Council of Trent insisted that we were saved not only by our faith but by our actions as well. We quoted the letter of St. James a lot (and Luther wasn't even sure it belonged in the Bible at all). James said show me your actions and I will show you the faith underlying it. And in reaction to "only the Scriptures," we said "no," it was the Scriptures and tradition. The emphasis was on tradition. The Scriptures could come later. Much, much later.

Well, now it is much, much later. It's time for the Scriptures. And for our Protestant brothers and sisters, surprise surprise, they are putting on vestments, they're buying incense, they have rediscovered ritual. And, please God, we are rediscovering the Bible.

Modern Scripture study for Catholics began around 1948 when Pope Pius XII allowed us to begin to interpret the Scriptures in other ways than literal. Our scholars were adopting many of the methods of the great protestant Scripture scholars to exegete (take out) of the Scriptures the great truths that are there.

With the advent of Vatican II, Scripture study groups began to pop up around the Church and they continue to today but not nearly as much as they should be. Almost to the person, all who seriously study the Scriptures as an adult find them life changing. Our difficulty is we still don't think it's important. We still appropriate through the stained glass windows. There's nothing wrong with that but we are missing so much by not delving into God's Holy Word.

Today is Bible Sunday. Everyone owns one. Read it. Study it. And watch your life change.

In Jesus, the Word of God Incarnate,

Reminder to all RE families:

There will be no class on Wednesday, November 27 due to the Thanksgiving holiday. Please mark your calendars.

Advent Service Projects:

This year we will again be collecting new unwrapped toys for Marillac House on Chicago's West Side...not so very far from Elmhurst. There will be a "toy box" in the hall of school for donations on Wednesday, December 4 and 11 during class times. Toys for all ages are welcome... no violent toys please. Please be generous.

Our children will once again have the opportunity to add a global dimension to their acts of service. They will go to the "polls" to vote for the animal of their choice to be sent to a 3rd world country. The RE children are asked to come to class with a donation of 50 cents which will be donated to Heifer International. They can then "vote" for a pig, a sheep, or a goat to be sent to a small village, which will drastically improve the quality of life of its residents. Our "polls" will be open on the first 3 Wednesdays of December. Over the years, our children have really enjoyed this project.

Please continue to be very cautious in the parking lot on Wednesday afternoons and evenings. The change in time has made this even more important. Please use your headlights in the afternoon and be sure to drive in and out of the lot in the proper direction.

Attention RE Families: Please inform the REO if your address has changed.

For more information on any of the above, please contact the REO, (630) 832-8962 or email us at mqhmawoods@sbcglobal.net.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE BISHOP CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Holy Rosary Credit Union is taking poverty off the map in the heart of the country in Kansas City, Missouri. Started in 1943 by Italian immigrants, the not-for-profit credit union extends development and financial education services geared toward the low-income population of Kansas City.

With help from the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) Collection, the credit union encourages thrift, savings, and the wise use of credit for individuals and small businesses. It teaches its members how to manage and control their finances, helping move them into financial stability and out of poverty. Holy Rosary abides by Catholic social principles to serve seven parishes and bases its outreach on Christ's example of love for the poor.

This Collection is the primary source of funding for CCHD's anti-poverty grants and education programs. Collection proceeds have provided access to invaluable resources for those who struggle in poverty and have made positive impacts throughout the United States.

Through CCHD the Catholic Church is working to continue the Church's tradition. Help us get poverty off the map once and for all. Defend human dignity. Take poverty off the map. Support CCHD in the upcoming Collection. Please remember, 25% of the Collection's proceeds stay here in our diocese to fight poverty in our communities and defend the dignity of our neighbors.

For more information about the Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development and the groups it funds, please visit www.usccb.org and search "CCHD Collection Resources."

God bless you,

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon
Bishop of Joliet
