Sunday of Divine Mercy

APRIL 27, 2014

SAINT JOHN XXIII

"Peace is but an empty word, if it does not rest upon that order...that is founded on truth, built up on justice, nurtured and animated by charity, and brought into effect under the auspices of freedom...human resources alone, even though inspired by the most praiseworthy good will, cannot hope to achieve it. God Himself must come to man's aid with His heavenly assistance." —Pacem in Terris

SAINT JOHN PAUL II

"The world you are inheriting is a world which desperately needs a new sense of brotherhood and human solidarity. It is a world which needs to be touched and healed by the beauty and richness of God's love."

—Homily, July 28, 2002

Note from the Pastor

This Sunday, the 1st Sunday after Easter used to be called 'Low Sunday.' That's because compared to the grandeur of Easter, everything's a bit of a downer. Not anymore. Now it's 'Divine Mercy Sunday.'

Thanks to Saints Pope John Paul II and Faustina, we are all filled with mercy. But then we always were. Of all of God's gifts there is none sweeter than mercy. It is God's free, unearned, unmerited, unwarranted gift that says to us, I set you free. You have a burden unbearable? I take it away. You have a conscious filled with guilt, I wash it clean. What a deal!

There's a wonderful story of a man before a just judge. The man was trembling because he was so guilty. The judge said to him, "Why do you fear? I am a just judge and I promise justice." He replied, "I know your Honor, that's why I'm scared. I know I'll get justice and if I do, I'm a dead man. I don't need justice, I need mercy."

And mercy we shall have for in our God, mercy and justice kiss. God's justice IS mercy. It is the prodigal father killing the fatted calf for his prodigal son. It is the risen Lord bidding peace to his disciples after they betrayed Him.

In today's Gospel we have Mercy personified in the resurrected Christ. I'm so glad I'm not Jesus because if it were I who was abandoned by my disciples, left to die alone and then became victorious over death and showed up to my so called followers, trust me, there would be a day of reckoning. They would get their just desserts, alright, shoved down their throats. I can almost hear myself, "Three years I was with you, teaching you, caring for you, loving you and in my moment of need, where the hell were you? Oh, you're going to pay for this."

And what was the real Jesus' response? What was the first word out of His mouth after having walked through the doors appearing to His trembling disciples? "SHALOM!! PEACE!!" And then he said it again!

And if that wasn't enough, after he held nothing against them, He gave them a gift. The best gift of all – His own Divine Mercy, the power to do what He just did.

When He had said this, he showed them His hands and side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when He said this He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you shall forgive are forgiven then, and whose sins you retain are retained."

God's mercy, His unconditional grace and love are now given to us to distribute as we please. The gift is ours to give or not to give. But woe to us who choose not to give it. For if we choose to hold on to an offense, to retain a sin, we are now once again held in captivity and re-enter into the sin from which we have just been forgiven. It's God's little catch 22. (He does have such a sense of humor).

So, now that you have this divine power, this Divine Mercy, how are you going to use it? Know anybody who can use a little unmerited grace? Unearned forgiveness? Give it away and watch it come back 30, 60, 100 fold.

*Blessed are the Merciful,
For mercy shall be theirs.*

In Jesus, the Merciful,

First Communion at MQH: Congratulations to the 70 children who have been and will be welcomed to the Eucharistic Table to receive Jesus for the first time.

Please mark your calendars:

RE Registrations - Registrations for the 2014-2015 RE year have been mailed. Our enrollment is limited, therefore in order to guarantee a space for your child, be sure to return your completed RE registration form as soon as possible. FYI: registration in the RE program is limited to participating members of Mary Queen Parish.

Catechists are needed for the 2014/2015 RE year. At this time it looks like we will need just a few catechists and/or aides at various grade levels and in each session. We are very blessed and very grateful. Please call the office if you are able to help. Although next September seems very far away, it will be here before you know it. Remember you don't have to be a theologian; you just have to be someone who loves your Faith and would enjoy sharing it with our children. Call the REO for details.

PRINCIPLED PLURALISM: THE CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES OF AMERICA'S RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY

A PANEL DISCUSSION FEATURING:

Dr. S. Alan Ray
President Elmhurst College

Dr. Philip G. Ryken
President, Wheaton College

Alec Hill
President, InterVarsity
Christian Fellowship

Tuesday, April 29, 2014 • 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.
Wheaton College • Barrows Auditorium
(East Wing of Billy Graham Center)
500 College Avenue • Wheaton, IL 60187

As our world becomes increasingly interconnected, and American society becomes increasingly diverse, we more frequently come into contact with people who have deeply held religious beliefs that differ from our own. Substantive disagreements between people of different faiths - and between people within the same general faith tradition - exist, and no amount of missionary activity or interfaith dialogue will erase them. How we manage these substantive disagreements will increasingly affect the well-being of our local communities and our nation.

In what ways is religious diversity a challenge, and in what ways is it an opportunity? What are some of the potential benefits and pitfalls of interfaith engagement? This moderated panel discussion will showcase Evangelical and Roman Catholic perspectives on this subject, with a particular focus on higher education.

This event is free and open to the public.
